

Reflections

Thursday, November 12, 2020

Advice from a donor

After Lori, Paul and I are make presentations to possible donors, we follow up with phone calls to see how they would like to participate. Sometimes it's money, sometime expertise, sometimes business wisdom. As I talked with Martin Childress, he wanted to be sure we all heard his business insight "Don't be too small. Don't be too small." Monroe has a vision for the world. Let's fulfill it.

35th Anniversary

It seems hard to imagine, but this is the 35th Anniversary of "We are the World." Here's a lookback edition. You'll love to see all of the 80s most famous singers in one place...and younger:

This will brighten your day. (14:43)

We are the World 35th Edition